PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

MORE THAN A PLAN: A JOURNEY TOGETHER

At this moment in our parish journey, we find ourselves at a meaningful intersection of discernment, transition, and hopeful anticipation.

Several movements have been unfolding simultaneously: the Parish Renewal Team is entering the final phase of developing our pastoral plan; the Parish Pastoral Council has begun its journey of accompaniment and discernment; and the Finance Council has stepped in with dedication, offering not only insight into our financial reality but also concrete support to help us move forward with clarity and stewardship.

These first few months have been a time of listening, learning, and mutual discovery. Both councils have embraced the mission of understanding the current landscape of our parish—its strengths, its challenges, and its emerging needs. Even at this early stage, their dedication has begun to yield small yet hopeful fruits of collaboration through the creation of focused subcommittees, each entrusted with exploring key aspects of parish life, including discipleship, ministries, hospitality and engagement, finance, communication, staff-related matters, and financial procedures. These groups are serving the community in very tangible ways, helping us navigate essential areas of reorganization and discernment—especially as we reflect on how best to align our structures with the mission we are called to live.

The Building Fund Committee, too, has offered us a broader sense of direction—one that unites us around more than just a financial goal. It gathers us around a shared vision for the future of our parish: a vision that embraces our past, responds to our present needs, and expresses our desire to be a welcoming and mission-oriented community. Through their work—and the support of each of us—we are reminded that financial responsibility, when rooted in pastoral vision, becomes an instrument of mission.

At first glance, it may seem as though these various dynamics are unfolding on separate tracks. But through the lens of faith, they appear as threads of a single tapestry—woven together by the Spirit who calls us not merely to work beside one another, but to walk together.

And in this walking together, we remain close to the wider Church. We do not discern in isolation. We do not carry this responsibility alone. The wisdom and support of our diocesan offices continue to accompany us, helping ensure that our path remains rooted in the communion and guidance of the Church to which we belong.

Saturday 3:30 - 4:30 pm

This journey invites us to grow—not only in structure but in spirit. It calls us to create space to truly listen, to be patient with the process, and to trust that God is already at work in our midst. There will be questions, challenges, and, of course, failures. Yet when approached in a spirit of communion, even these can become spaces of grace.

Above all, I invite each of us—council members, ministry leaders, and parishioners—to embrace this moment not as a project to finish, but as a calling to live. The unity we seek will not come from perfect alignment but from shared intention: a desire to walk together, with hearts open to Christ and to one another.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

SHARING THE WORD

Gospel Reading – John 14:15-16, 23B-26

Reading these words from Jesus now in the light of his resurrection adds clarity, meaning and insight. His emphasis on loving makes love the hallmark of the Christian life. And love manifests itself in deeds. Love given is love received. Jesus promised that the Holy Spirit would deepen our understanding of this radical commandment to love.

1. Pentecost inspires us to see ourselves and others the way God sees us, differently yet always as one. In an often relativistic society, where not all differences build up the body of Christ, how can we love the sinner, yet hate the sin?

2. How well does our parish community really love, who do we find difficult to love and why?

How open are we to the promptings of the Holy Spirit regarding a renewal of our lives and why do we sometimes smother, or ignore these promptings?

We have an AED!

It is located in a Cabinet in the Narthex next to the Bookshelf with the Hymn books. There is also a First Aid Kit with it. A dedicated team of parishioners, which includes professionals with experience in emergency response and healthcare, have chosen an audible, simple to use AED for adults/children. Ministry groups will be given an overview on it. A protocol has also been developed to ensure clear procedures are in place in the event of an emergency. This initiative reflects our ongoing concern for safety and preparedness within our parish community. We thank the donation that made this possible.

An AED (Automated External Defibrillator) is a portable, user-friendly medical device designed to analyze a person's heart rhythm and deliver an electric shock (defibrillation) if necessary to restore a normal heart rhythm in cases of sudden cardiac arrest

Advancing Truth and Reconciliation in our Parish

The St. Peter's Truth and Reconciliation Action Committee (TRAC) invites you to a five-part series of discussion and learning, using a Canadian film production entitled Bones of Crows. This builds upon the sharing circles held last spring to better understand how the personal, community and social effects of the Indian Residential School System continue through today. Pope Francis urged us to take on this work during his pilgrimage to Canada and by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Call to Action #59.

Bones of Crows is a story of resilience and strength, grounded in historical truth. It weaves together underrepresented moments in Canadian and Indigenous history, including the Indigenous contributions to WWII, the ongoing cases of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada.

The episodes and the ensuing sharing circles will cover challenging material and so will not be suitable for children.

The fourth session will be on Saturday, June 7, from 9:30 am to 11:30 am in room C. If you would like to review the earlier episodes prior to attending, it is available on CBC Gem at <https://gem.cbc.ca/bones-of-crows>

Please join us as we learn together.

WHERE: St. Peter's Parish, 541 Silvergrove Drive NW, Calgary.
